

User Stories

1. Nurse sends personal information of patient and test being done, user inputs user patient's name, address, phone number, health card number, type of test, test location, any symptoms and contacts in said order. User submits said information.
2. Doctor checks out patient, user reads patient information, determines what to do with said information. Then Doctor checks out the patient.
3. Lab determines the outcome of the patient's test. After the lab determines the outcome of the test, the user inputs the outcome. User submits the outcome.
4. Users login into the system based on who they are, user inputs their user id and password. User logs in.
5. Guests enter the system and are able to read about the pandemic. User enters guest mode, user is able to read about the virus.